FOREWORD

FOREWORD

"A book is essentially not a talked thing, but a written thing, and written not with a view of mere communication, but of permanence.

This is the best of me. My life was as the vapor, and is not; but this I saw and knew,---, this, if anything of mine, is worth your memory."

- Ruskin -

Thus it is with the Senior Class of 1941. Like a vapor it is, here one minute, gone the next, leaving behind it this volume of THE BOBCAT to serve as a reminder of the past.

FORWARD

It is a pleasure to have this book published. It is a book of the past, but it is also a book of the future. It is a book of the present, but it is also a book of the future. It is a book of the past, but it is also a book of the future. It is a book of the present, but it is also a book of the future.

This is the first of a series of books. It is a book of the past, but it is also a book of the future. It is a book of the present, but it is also a book of the future. It is a book of the past, but it is also a book of the future. It is a book of the present, but it is also a book of the future.

DEDICATION

DEDICATION

To the faculty of
Pleasant Grove High School
whose whole-hearted interest and cooperation have at all times been the life blood of our class, we,
the Seniors of 1941, dedicate this edition of
THE BOBCAT.

DEDICATION

In the memory of

Elizabeth Jane, 1881-1901

whose life was a constant struggle and who never gave up and who lived for the life of the world, and the memory of her and the memory of the world.

Superintendent

Pleasant Grove High School

Superintendent's Message

I am sure I express the feeling of all who are interested in the progress of Pleasant Grove School when I endeavor to express my gratitude to the Annual Staff, sponsors, and all individuals that had any part in the publishing of the 1941 issue of "THE BOBCAT". For your school, you have done a good job; for yourselves, you have the satisfaction of having completed a worthwhile piece of work.

This has been a most eventful year for Pleasant Grove, one that each of us can look back upon with much pride and satisfaction.

My exhortation to you, my dear young friends, is that you learn early in life that we are living in an ever-changing dynamic world of things, where sound judgment followed up by the use of common sense is indispensable. Again, remember that happiness and satisfaction come only by helping others.

To the members of the Senior Class, my wish is that each memory that you have of your school will serve to arouse in you desires always to do the noble thing that goes to make life worthwhile.

This ingenious little class had its beginning 'way back in '37, the year of the thrills. Thrill number one-- first freshman class ever to dominate new eighth grade room. Thrill number two -- Mr. Chambers, the wish of every girl. Thrill number three -- Assembly morning when Bobby Collins played the bones, Llewellyn Dement the jug, and James Sutphen the harmonica. Thrill number four -- First year to have girls' basketball team in full suit. Annie Lois Hudgens started her sensational basketball playing that year.

This eventful year wound up with a banquet.

The cutest twosomes that ever frolicked to a bang-up good time stepped sprightly over the threshold of the lunch room, then, what is now Mrs. Simm's and Mrs. Waterstreet's rooms. Some of those cute couples were Doris Smith-Jack Bell; Marion Barrett-Joe Allen Bridges; Ruth West-Jack Renz; Bobby West-Willa Jean Read. Others came but are too shy to tell with whom, or maybe they're ashamed to tell, eh Blanche?

Well, this old year rolled around mighty fast and the tittering "fish" became hopeful sophomores with the ending of the school year of '37-'38.

This year started off with a bang! It was the first year that the basketball and football teams received suits. The basketball team made its Alma Mater proud indeed by winning the County Championship in basketball. One of our now sophisticated seniors was a cheerleader. You might know him by the name of Budde Elam.

Mrs. Claudia Clay, now Senior Class Sponsor, made her debut into the school this year. She took over the paper and made widespread progress. The Sophomore Class was favored with a Valentine and Christmas party. Skating became the fad and started many a soph on his way to fancy skating.

Time marches on and these same sophs become boastful Juniors. Three members of this class were on the teams that won in the Interscholastic League. They were Bobby West and Bill Sloan on the typing team, and Marion Barrett on the shorthand team. They favored the school with three beautiful trophies. The Junior Class had a Christmas party at which they drew names. Afterwards the whole school went to the Grove Theatre.

And now after three years of carrying books around, the once nobodys become proud somebodys. The first Senior Class Meeting was held on Sept. 26, 1940. The officers were elected as follows: Bobby Koonce, president; Budde Elam, vice-president; Marion Barrett, Secretary; and Joe Allen Bridges, Sergeant-at-arms.

Beginning in October, the Seniors had a social every month. The merry month of May was the favored month because it was in this month that all the important senior activities took place. Senior Day, Graduation, and Baccalaureate come in this month. The Junior-Senior Banquet took place in April. New evening dresses and suits was the topic of conversation for weeks before and afterwards. This was another occasion for noting the secret heart-throbs Graduation exercises were held on May 28, 1941. As the Seniors received their diploma they embarked on a strange voyage in the River of Life. May they always keep afloat in this river of swift currents, and steer clear of the snags and giddy whirlpools of life.

Senior Class Prophecy 1951

Ho-hum! Who is that shaking me? I'm sleepy!
Who are you? Bruce Swanson? Why are you in that uniform? Oh! So you're a policeman now. I'm Rip Van Grove. I went to sleep May 28, 1941! Well, thank you for awakening me. Hmmm, how strange' the city seems! I think I will buy a newspaper. Well, well! Here is a picture of my old friend, Bobby Koonce, and in an admiral's uniform, too. Here's a picture of James Elam. So he's an aviator now, and isn't that Doris Vaught with him? And here's a picture of Floy Lee Grimes. And that's Genevia Cauthron! They always said they wanted to be aviatrixes when they grew up! I see that the plane they're to pilot was designed by none other than the super-designer for Flukey Aircraft Corp., Robert Renz.

What is this? Joe Allen Bridges, a fox- farmer? Silver foxes too! Well, he decided that if he couldn't get silver one way he could resort to another.

~~Hummmmmmmmmmm~~, Bill Sloan and Bobby West, electrical engineers for SHORT CIRCUIT CORP. Well, here's Jack Lindsey's picture, and he's wearing a sailor's uniform! Wonder if he still sings "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep"?

Now let's see what's on the Music and Art page. Ah! The ballet revue will be led by Bertha Lee. She will star in "The Knock-kneed Ballerina". Ruth West will sing for the President on January 30! Here's another item of interest. Glenn Carder will exhibit his latest drawings at his studio, Thursday. Marion Barrett will skate at the "Winter Garden". She is a protege of Honia Senie. Billie Baird is now employed with the Metropolitan Opera Company, as a maid.

Now, for the funnies! Ha! Ha! Ha! This cartoon is by my old friend, Arlin Richardson. And here is another by Horace Poston.

Anything in the ads? Just a few beauty shop ads. Oh! Wait a minute! Here is something of interest. Miss Wilma Thompson and her assistant, Miss Doris Smith will return to Dallas to style hair at LA SWANK BEAUTY SHOPPE.

Now let's take a look at the Society Page now Edited by Blanche Sordo. Well, well here's a picture of Christeen Ground who will entertain with a buffet supper, honoring the governor of Texas, none other than Donald Halbert, and his wife, the former Miss Frances White. . Miss Mary Ellen Anderson will give a party for a small group of friends. Let's see who is included on the guest list. Misses Mary Jane Foote, Beverly Bell, Josie Mae Johnson Lydia Hughes, Dolly Campbell, and Messrs. Dayne Mitchell, Franklin Lemmons, and Scott Rosenberg. Lavern Hall and Annie Lois Hudgens at an announcement tea surprised their friends with the news of plans for a double wedding next month. This looked-forward-to event will take place in the Prairie Creek Church with the Prairie Creek Cyclones furnishing the music.

Well I suppose there are no more writings of special interest. Now where am I? Why, this is the Medical Arts Building, and if those ladies are not Ruby Jean Garner and Mary Millican in nurse's January 10, 1898. To the Hon. Secy. of the Interior.

Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 8th inst.

uniforms! I think I'll go in. Why, aren't you Patsy Carnes? Remember me? I'm Doris McCallum. Don't you remember? You were in the Senior class of 1941. Look, isn't that Roy Beam over there? So he's a doctor now! Are you a nurse too? Charlene Trimble secretary DOLITTLE, DOLITTLE, AND DIDLITTLE CORP? Did you say that Dorothy Curtis holds the official honor of being the world's best gum-popper? Oh, so Lois Whitman is also a secretary? Who's that over there? Don't I know him? Oh, of course ! Aaron Dee Foster. So he is a comedian on Bob Dope's program. Well, goodbye Patsy.

Well, I wonder what I'll do now. Oh, here is a book store. Maybe there's a good love story our. Well I'll declare! If the book clerk isn't Clarence Johnson. Good morning. Yes I'd like to look at some books. What's this? "How to be a Stenographer" by Charles Hicks. No, no, what did you say this is? "How to Bring Up Children Correctly" by James Bachelor Winter. Who is that coming in? Oh, you say it's Dewey Daugherty, the football coach of Pleasant Grove who has coached an undefeated team?

Ho-hum! How Dallas has changed in ten years! Well, I guess I'll go back to sleep for another ten years. Ho-hum.

- October 29 Costume Party held in Band Hall. Mr. Thompson oustanding personage with "punching" ability.
- November 29 Weiner Roast at White Rock. Mrs. Clay showed unpublicized ability in the art of running.
- December 21. Christmas Party in Band Hall. Mr. Matthews could never got on the winning side. Poor man!
- January 21 Weiner Roast at White Rock. Things got "purty Tipsy-Turvy".
- February 28 Hay Ride at roadside park near Seagoville. Unusual talent was displayed by students as well as teachers in the fine art of singing.
- March 21 Backward Party held at the home of Bertha Lee. You'd be surprised at hurried invitations given by the Senior girls to the Senior boys. The torch flamed high for some of the girls that night when they got an opportunity to go with their favorite beau.
- May 23 Senior Day! Started with sunrise breakfast and then cruised over to hear the Early Birds broadcast. Privileged characters in a call assembly. Lunch and movie in downtown Dallas. Swim and picnic at Kidd Springs.

Although the 1940-41 vollen ball team lost its first game at the Interscholastic Meet, the school is not ashamed of it. The members of the team played hard and were good sports.

The team was made up of Captain Patsy Carnes, Nita Faye Harris, Patricia Dugan, Ellen Jane Lynn, Genevia Cauthron, Patricia Hicks, Dorothy Merriman, and Doris Lee. The team was coached by J. E. Caldwell. The team will lose Patsy Carnes and Genevia Cauthron through graduation. Around these veterans, with Patsy Carnes as caption, a "scrappy little team" was built. The girls all hope for better success next year.

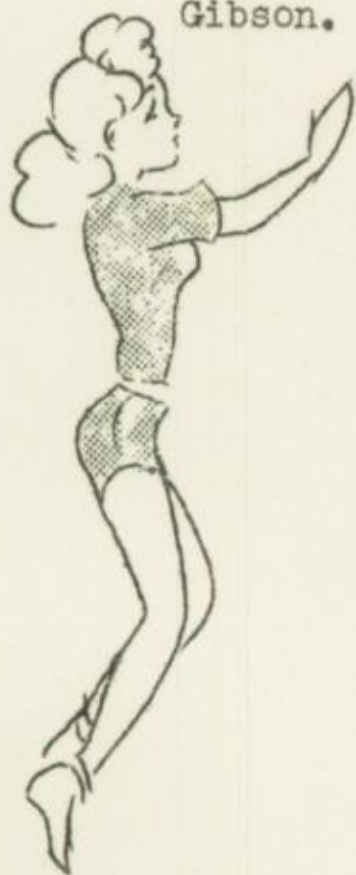

BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball team entered into the regular conference of 1940-41 and won five out of twelve games.

Marion Barrett tossed the leather through the hoop to take the lead in the position as forward, while Wilma Thompson's varied tactics at guarding won her the title of "most valuable guard" on the team. Annie Lois Hudgens was the veteran of the team, having lettered her three previous years in high school. The surprise of the year was when Mildred Gibson, a freshman staring out for the first time, landed a regular guard's position before the season ended. Laverne Hall was elected captain by the team.

The following girls lettered. All are graduating with the coming term except Mildred Gibson.

Marion Barrett	Forward
Annie L. Hudgens	Forward
Doris Vaught	Forward
Patsy Carnes	Forward
Laverne Hall	Guard
Mildred Gibson	Guard
Wilma Thompson	Guard

The first part of the report is devoted to a description of the general conditions of the country. It is found that the country is generally fertile and well watered. The soil is of a rich brown color and is covered with a thick layer of vegetation. The climate is temperate and the weather is generally pleasant. The people are friendly and hospitable and are well educated. The government is well organized and the laws are strictly enforced. The country is a good example of a well governed and prosperous state.

The second part of the report is devoted to a description of the principal cities and towns of the country. It is found that the cities are well built and the streets are clean and wide. The houses are of a good quality and the people are well dressed. The commerce is active and the trade is increasing. The country is a good example of a well developed and prosperous state.

SPORT

NEWS

The 1940-41 sports season for Pleasant Grove football and basketball teams proved the value of the time honored adage "Experience is the Best Teacher". Not one letter man was available in either of these sports. As a result, these inexperienced boys were not often on the winning side of the ledger; however, they displayed a remarkable spirit against heavier and more mature teams, and won the admiration and respect of their coach and fans by refusing to give up when the going was toughest.

Outstanding on the gridiron sport were Watson and Kent at ends, Beam at tackle, Brey and Williams at guard, and Conner in the backfield. Brey and Hicks were chosen co-captains and Francis White was chosen the football "Sweetheart".

Highlights of the football season came when the Bobcats surprised the highly rated Wilmer-

REPORT - 1906

1. The first part of the report deals with the general conditions of the country during the year 1906. It is found that the weather was generally favorable, and the crops were well advanced.

2. The second part of the report deals with the details of the work done during the year. It is found that the work was well done, and the results were satisfactory. The following table shows the results of the work done during the year:

Item	Quantity	Value
Wheat	1000 bushels	$1000.00
Barley	500 bushels	$500.00
Oats	200 bushels	$200.00
Hay	100 tons	$1000.00
Grain	1000 bushels	$1000.00
Stock	100 head	$1000.00
Land	100 acres	$1000.00
Buildings	1000 sq. ft.	$1000.00
Tools	1000 pieces	$1000.00
Other	1000 items	$1000.00

3. The third part of the report deals with the financial statement for the year. It is found that the financial statement is in good shape, and the results are satisfactory. The following table shows the financial statement for the year:

Item	Amount
Income	$10000.00
Expenses	$8000.00
Profit	$2000.00

Hutchins eleven with a 13-13 tie, and defeated the Tech B Team 36-7.

Nine lettermen will be available for the 1941 season. With these men to build around, Pleasant Grove should be able to place a well balanced team on the field.

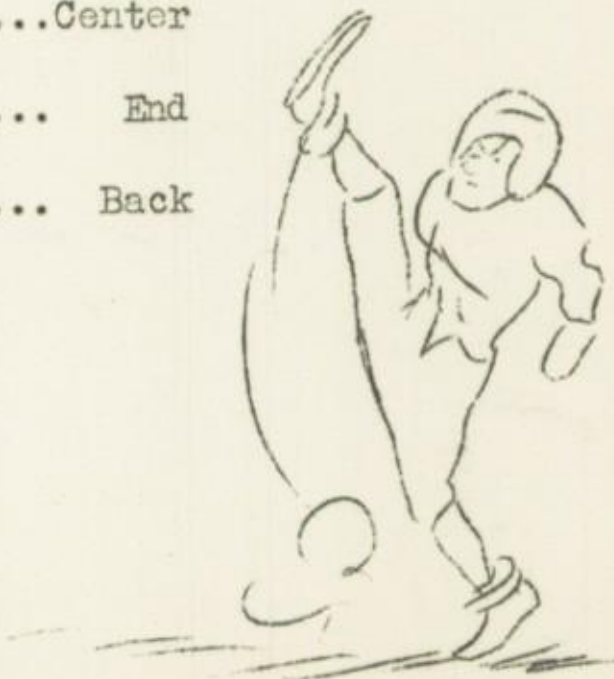

The lettermen for this year are as follows:

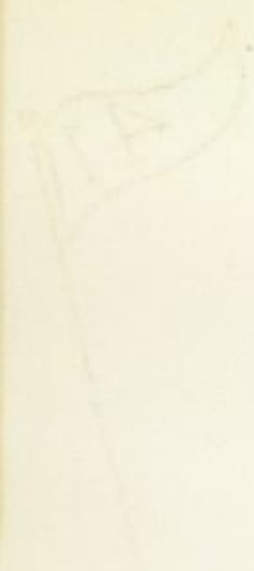

Charles Hicks	Back
George Brey	Guard
Roy Beam	Tackle
Gene Bybee	Tackle
Ray Christopherson	Back
Jack Conner	Back
James Cooper	End
Charles Harrison.....	Tackle
William Neuroth	End

Basketball

The possibility that a long cherished dream might be fulfilled has become a reality. At last Pleasant Grove is to have a gymnasium. Construction on a new gym is scheduled to begin before the conclusion of this school term, and should be ready for the 1941-42 basketball season

This year the basketball team was forced to journey, as usual, to the Fair Park courts for their workouts, and all of the conference games were played on the opponent's courts. Despite these handicaps, the team showed a constant improvement, and at the last of the season managed to upset the favored Cedar Hill five. Some twelve men were carried on this year's squad, and six will be back to form the nucleus for next year's team.

Co-captains Lemmons and Sloan, of the basketball squad, deserve special mention for their play on the Hardwood court, as do Swanson and Elam, who turned in good performances at their positions.

This year's lettermen are as follows:

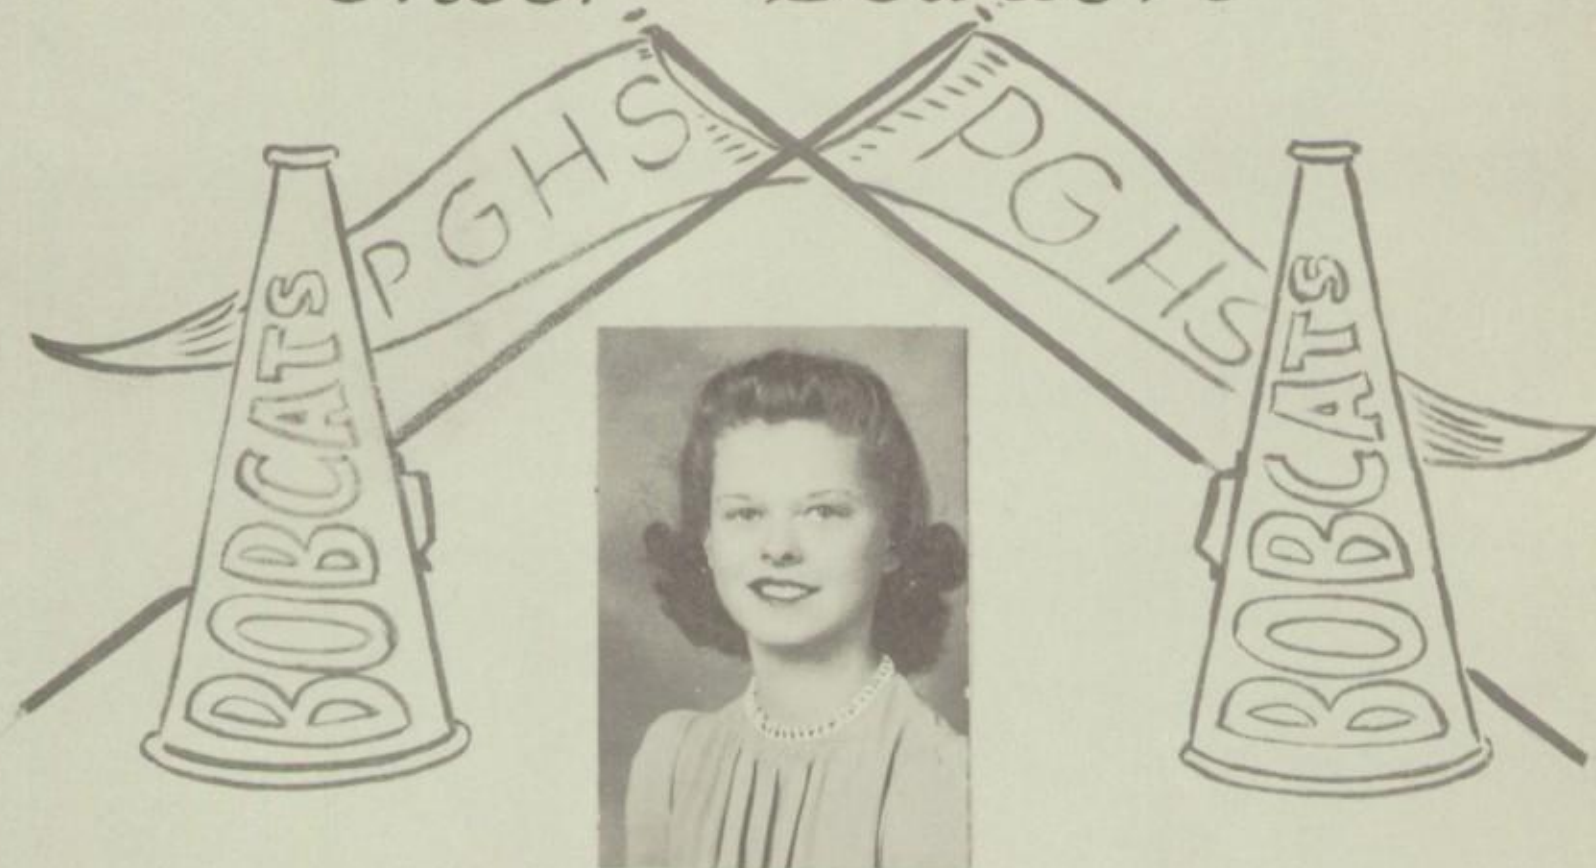

Bill Sloan ..	Forward	Budde Elam ..	Guard
Bob Koonce ..	Forward	B. Swanson ..	Guard
F. Lemmons ..	Center	L. Watson ..	Guard

Pleasant Grove's track team consisted of Crane, Conner, Brey, Rosenberg, and Witherspoon .

Conner placed in the District Meet.

Last Minute Flashes

We have just learned that Ben Macon, Bob West and Bill Sloan carried their winnings through the regional meet to be eligible for the state meet at Austin on May 10. Here's luck to you, boys !

The cast for the Senior play, "He Was A Gay Senorita", has been picked. Rehearsals are going strong. The measles have trumped our ace, but we have a few more cards up our sleeve.

The Junior-Senior Banquet was a success and the Show Boat proved to be the favorite haunt after the banquet. Dorothy Curtis seemed quite upset when she heard the class will in which she willed her "popping gum" to some unfortunate lassie. Was the blushing face caused by the fact that John McKenzie was by her side?

The Journalism Class will attend a formal dinner at the Chapultepec on May 9, 1941. Another chance for beaux to be picked!

The Dad's and Mother's Clubs presented a gay nineties review at the school auditorium on April 24, 1941. A prize was given for the most unique costume worn by a person picked from the audience.

So long 'till next year ! ! !

PLEASANT GROVE'S TEN POINTS

1. A penny saved is a miracle.
2. An apple a day (to the teacher) keeps the red ink away.
3. While the teacher's away, the students will play.
4. Beauty is only make-up deep.
5. A boy in the hand is worth two free ones any day.
6. All's fair in love and examination.
7. If at first you don't succeed, take the course again.
8. There are no tu-lips but what have lipstick on them these days.
9. In spring a young man's fancy turns to what the girls think of all the time.
10. If you want to find out about a teacher's character, look in the student's face.

Bob West: I suppose you think I'm a perfect idiot.

Ruth West: Oh, none of us are perfect.

Grandpa: You never see a girl blush nowadays. When I was a lad, it was different.

Patcy C: Oh, grandpa, whatever did you say to them?

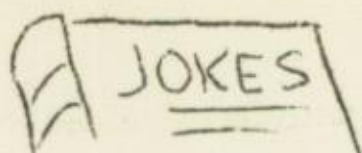

A board marked "Dynamite" is a sign of danger.

Dolly C: Don't you fear burglars while your parents are gone?

Genevia C: But I have a revolver.

Dolly: I should think you'd be frightened to death of the thing.

Genevia: Oh dear no-- it isn't loaded and Daddy took the trigger off for me.

HUMOR

Mr. Pullis: Why on earth did you leave off playing just as we got the chorus?

Aevonne T: Well, on my music it says, Refran, so I did.

Aaron Dee: Now you just sit tight while the plane takes off.

Jeanne Jones: But what'll do if we start falling?

Aaron: Oh, nothing, just reach out and catch anything we pass.

Billy Sloan: I want some gingerale.

Waiter: Pale?

Bill: No, just a glass.

DORIS V: Did anyone ever tell you how wonderful you are?

Budde Elam: Don't believe they ever did.

Doris: Then, where did you get the idea?

Ray Chris: Do you believe in clubs for women?

Gene Bybee: Certainly I do, but only after kindness has failed.

Motor Cop: So you saw the accident sir. What was the number of the car that hit this poor man?

J. E. Caldwell: I'm afraid I've forgotten, sir. But I do remember noticing that if it were multiplied by fifty, the cube root of the product would be equal to the sum of the digits reversed.

Mr. Mathews: I do wish you would learn better table manners. You're a regular little pig
(Not a word from Don)

Mr. (Sternly): Son, do you know what a pig is?

Don: (Meekly) Yes, it's a hog's little boy.

Cop: Hey! Don't you know that is a safety zone?

Betty F: Of course That's why I drove in here.

It isn't hard to live on a small salary, if you don't spend too much trying to keep it secret.

Mrs. Denison: Dot, why didn't you answer my question?

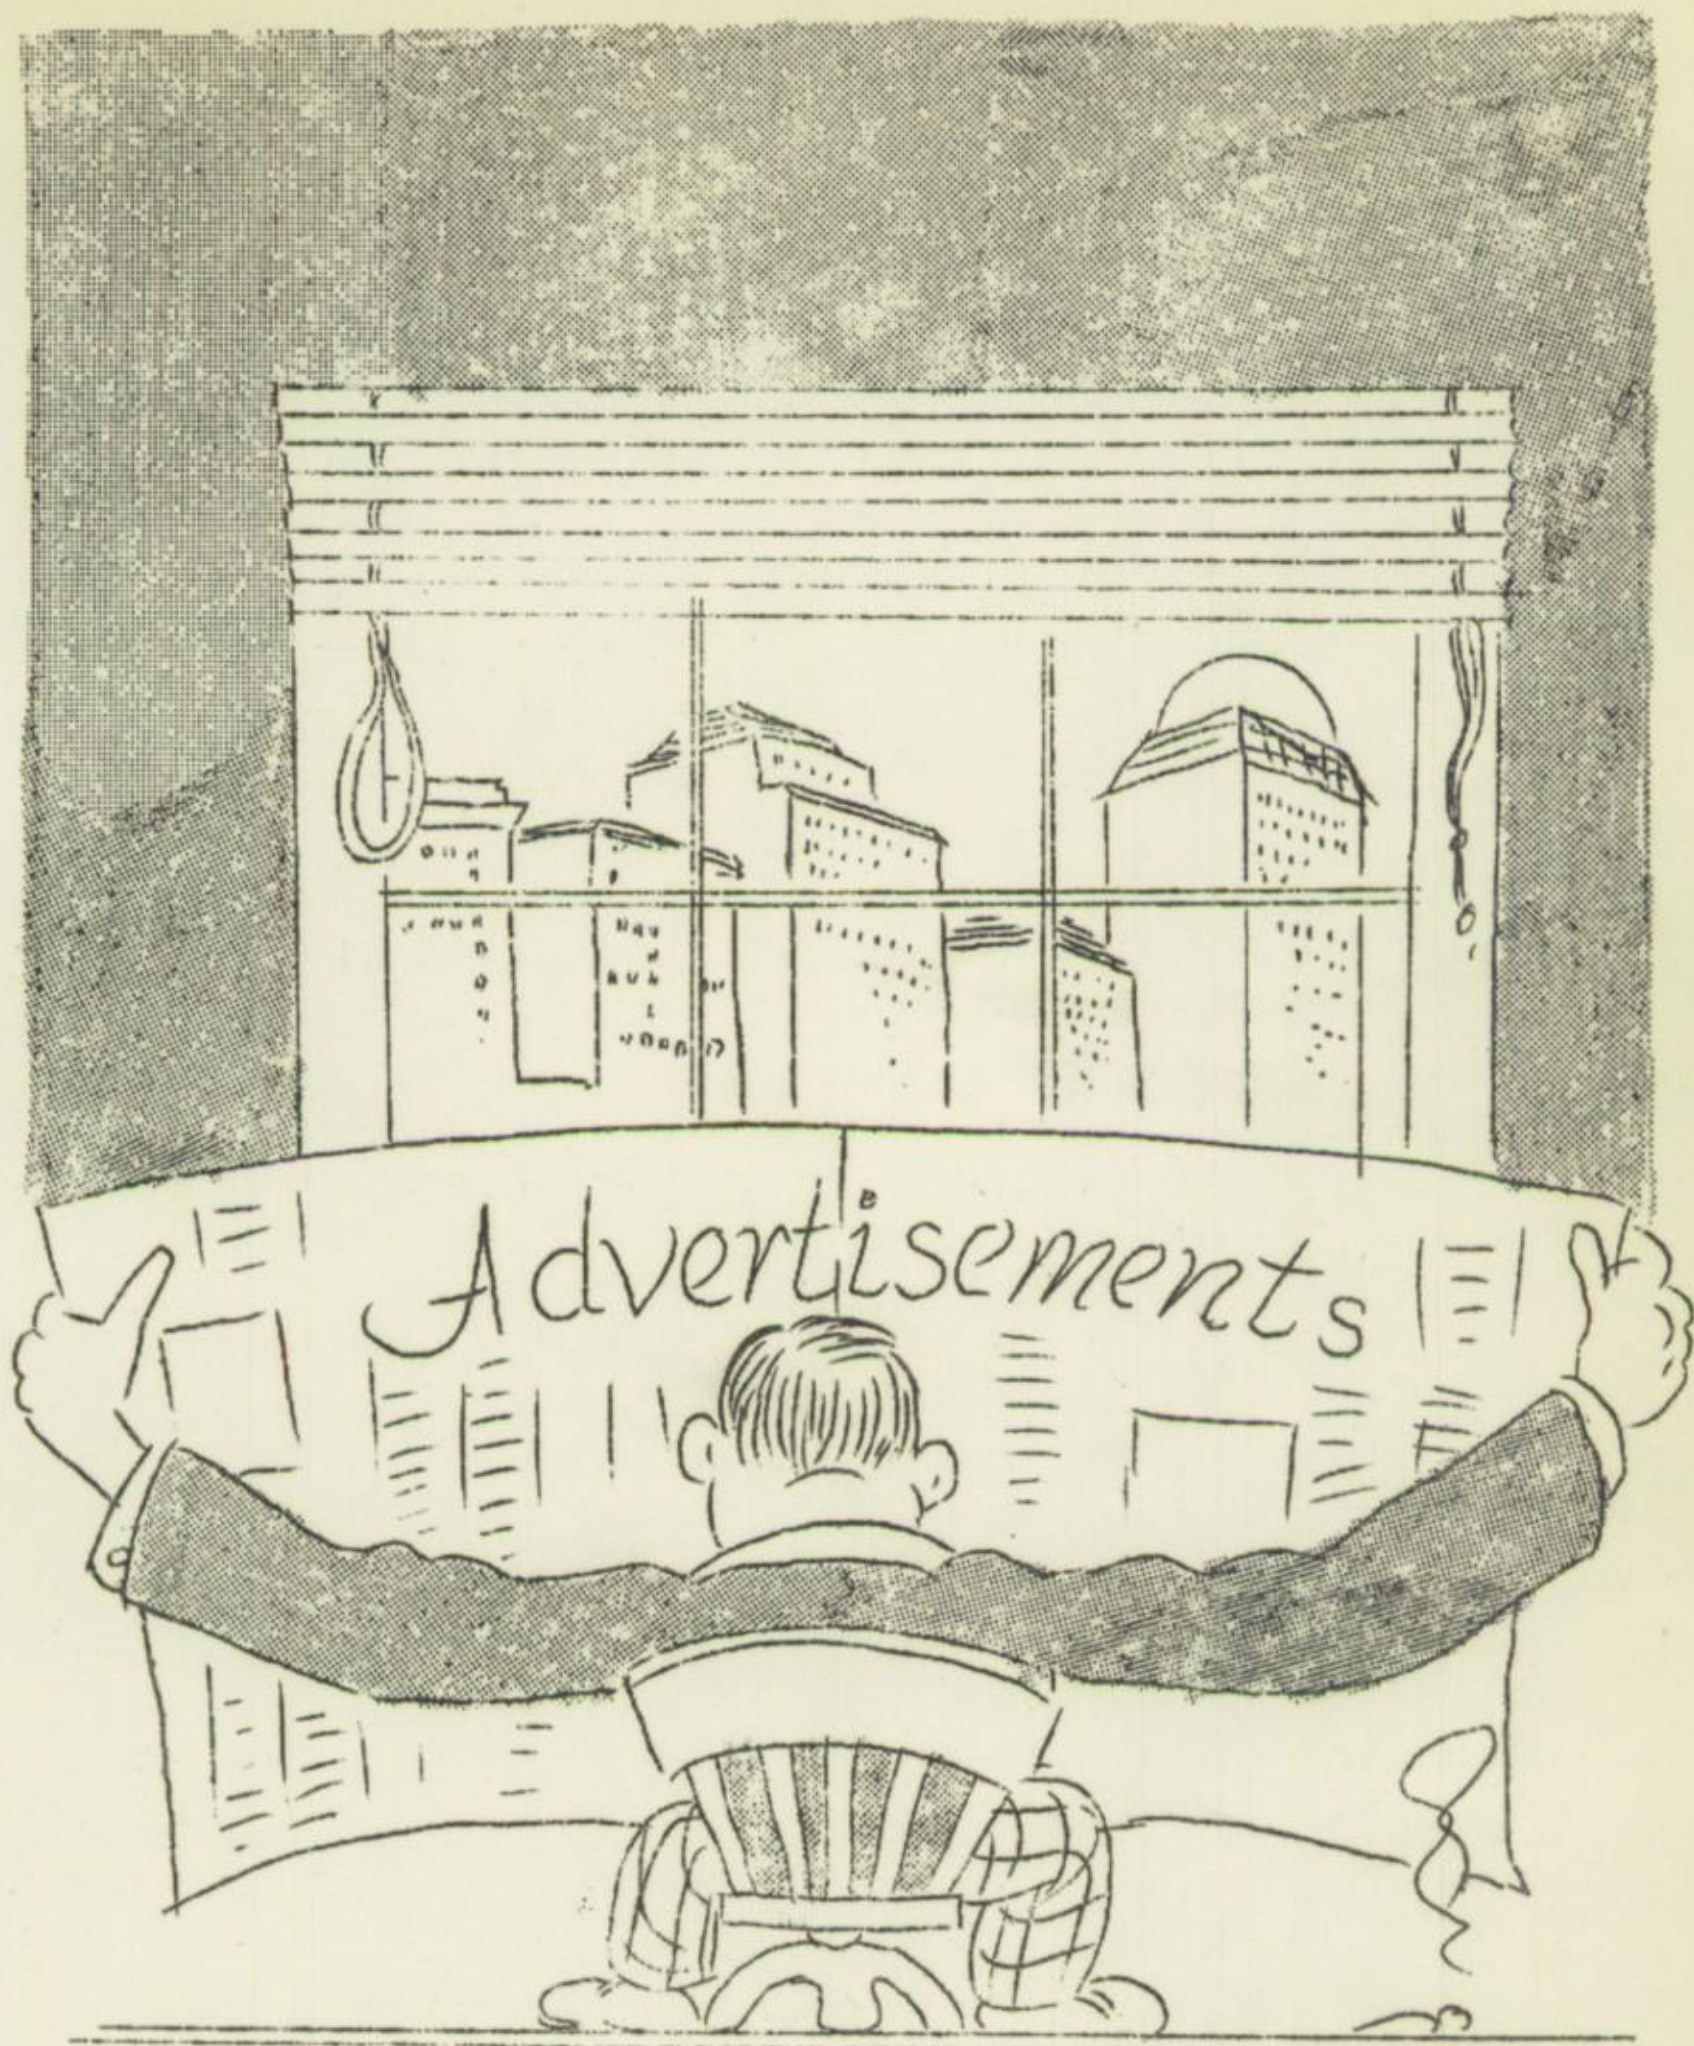

Dot Curtis: I shook my head.

Mrs: You don't expect me to hear it rattle way up here, do you?

Invitations - Diplomas - Class Rings - Annuals

P. O. BOX 597
Dallas, Texas

To the - Friends, Faculty, and Students of your High School:

We would like for you to know how faithfully and untiringly your Annual Staff, Managers, Editors, and Sponsors have worked to make this Annual an interesting record of the school year. You, probably, have not known of the details of making dummies, taking pictures, writing copy, proofreading, arrangement, advertising, subscription, etc. Although this is valuable training and experience, the objective of those doing the work was to publish an Annual that your school and Community would be proud of. We know how hard they have tried because we have worked with them during the past months.

Frankly, we are proud of your Annual. It would be a credit to any High School in Texas -- and we hope that you like it.

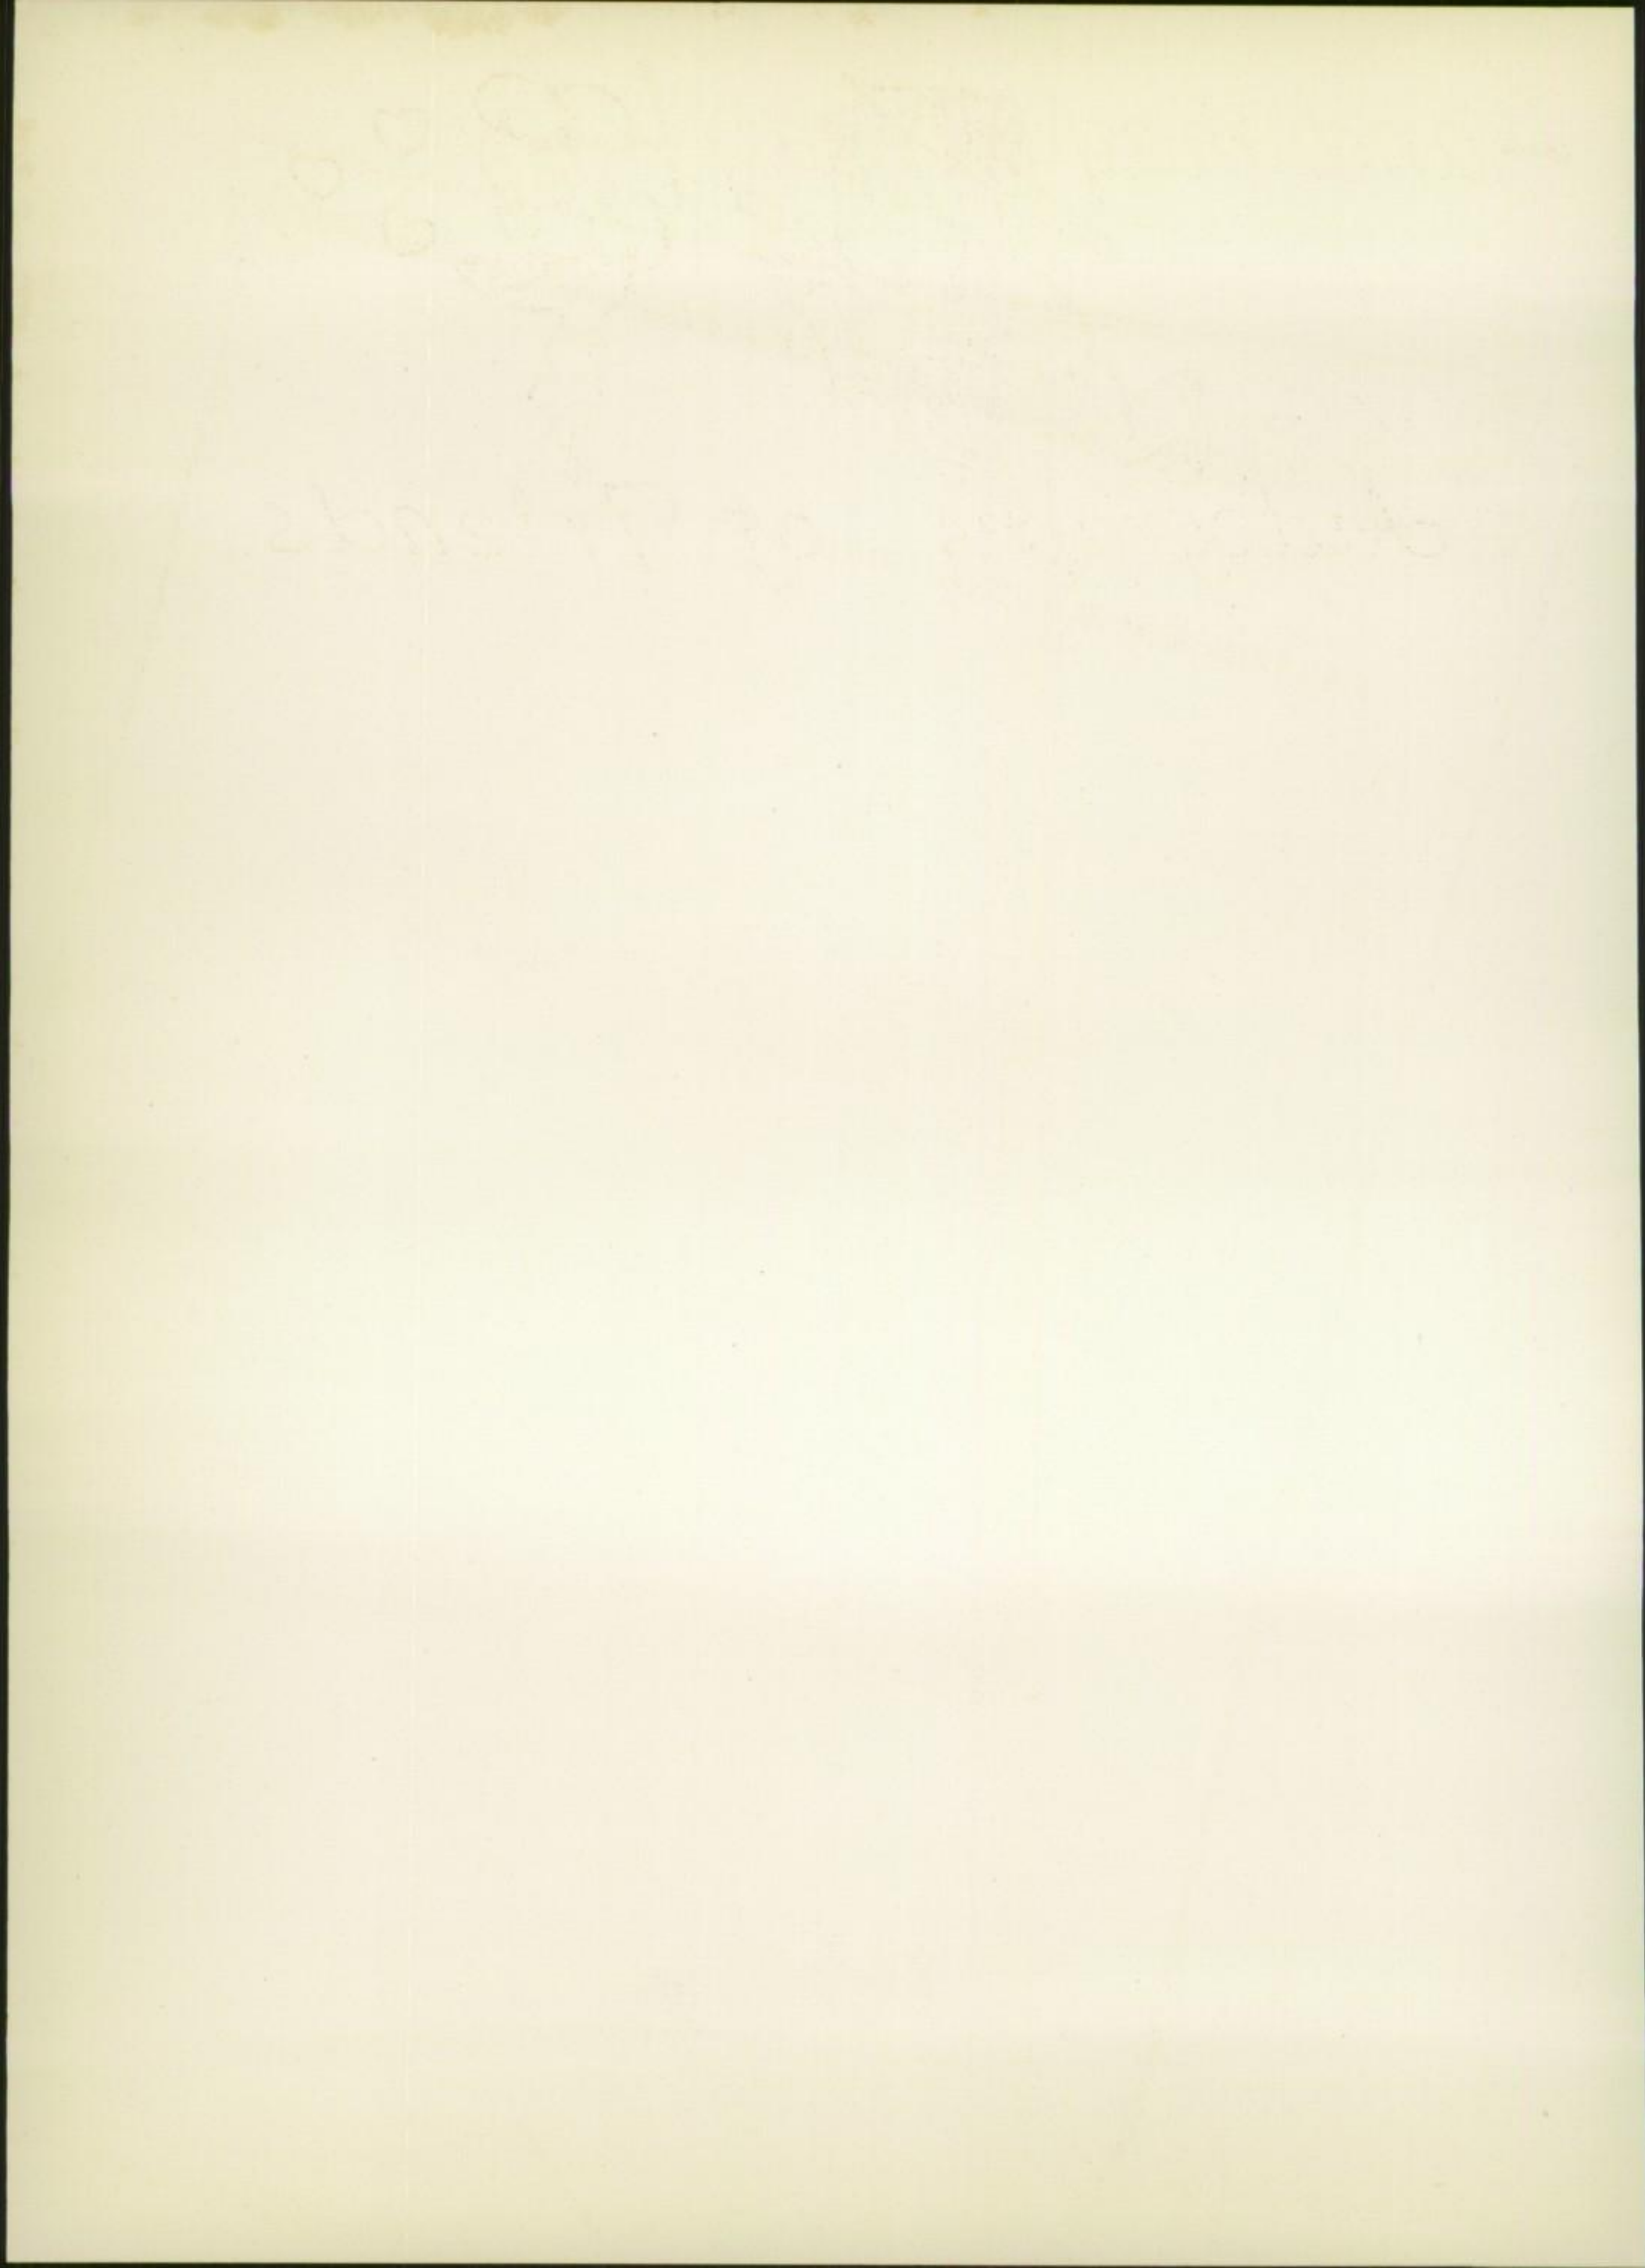

Our association and business dealings with those connected with the publication have been most pleasant, and we appreciate the fine cooperation which they have given us.

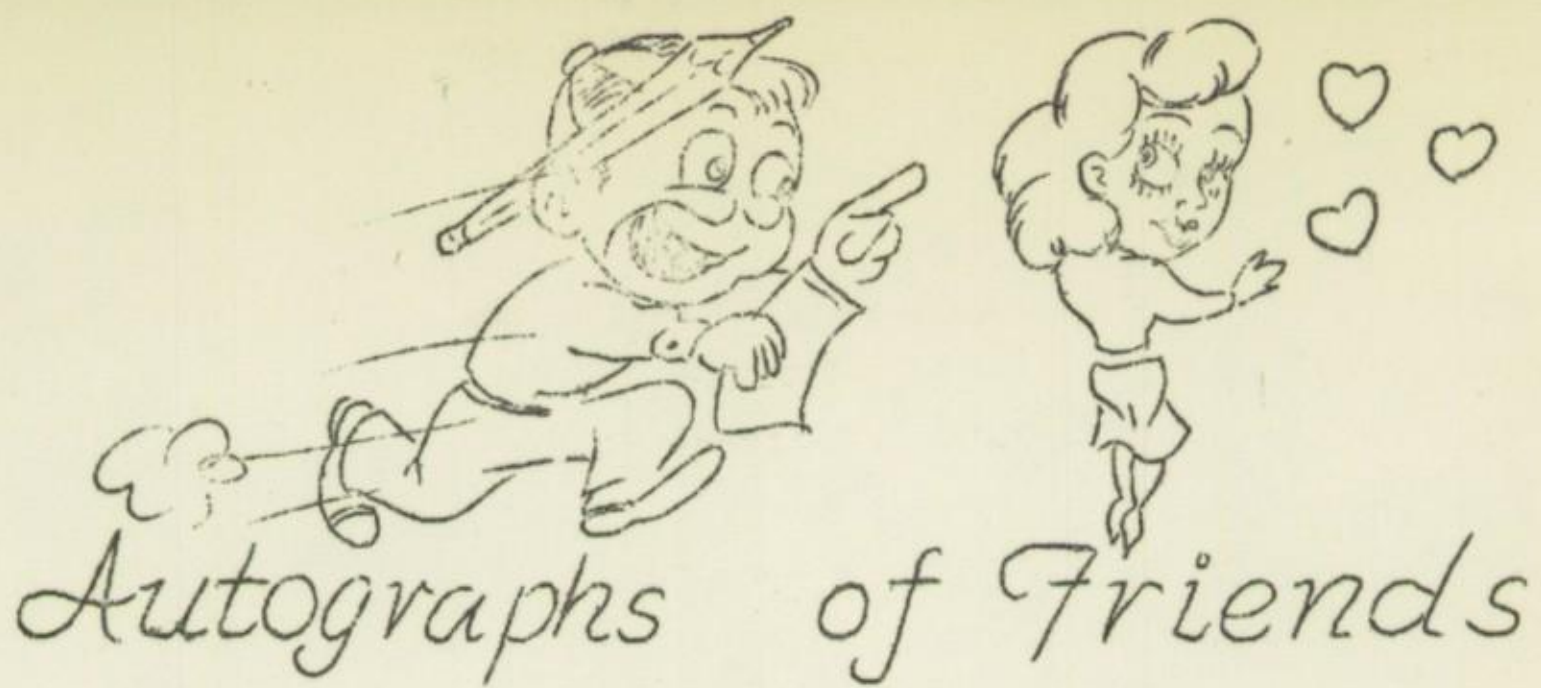

We have done our best to make this Annual one that you will be proud of, and we hope that we may serve you again.

Sincerely,

TAYLOR ENGRAVING COMPANY

2105 McKinney Avenue
Dallas, Texas
